THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, United States Intelligence Board

Subject: Sino-Soviet Disputes

References: a. Memo for Chrmn, USIB, subject as above, dtd 8 Jan 60
b. Memo for USIB, subject: Memorandum from Director for Intelligence, Joint Staff, on "Sino-Soviet Disputes" (USIB-D-48.1/1)

Reference a was addressed to the Chairman, USIB, to confirm my understanding of USIB conclusions as to the nature of Sino-Soviet disputes and of the meaning of the word "ideological."

Subsequent discussions in USIB (for example in connection with NIE 100-60) indicated a common view among USIB members that Sino-Soviet disputes concerned tactics and methodology rather than ideology. Accordingly, the questions raised in reference a have been adequately answered and USIB consideration of my memorandum as proposed by reference b appears unnecessary.
